President's Update

Join Us in Dubuque . . . Meet Our Past Presidents By Bo Beaulieu

I received some excellent news today. Our new website is now operational and individuals can begin registering for the 2014 annual meeting in Dubuque. I have been impressed by the excellent program that has been taking shape over the last few weeks. Not only do we have a superb line up of great keynote speakers, we also have an excellent mix of research and applied presentations, an extensive number of posters, and a fantastic slate of mobile learning workshops. Add some great meals, networking, the silent auction and our awards banquet, and you have the makings of a truly exciting and rewarding annual meeting...

Intergenerational Learning and Community Development

By James B. Wilcox

Engaging youth in Mississippi's community development forum has become an everyday approach for The Center for Economic and Entrepreneurship Education (CEEE) at The University of Southern Mississippi. The Center's strategic statewide initiatives have come to include an intergenerational pilot project entitled "Elder Investment Fraud: Teens Educating Seniors in MS" as well as the Southern Entrepreneurship Program, which offers experiential business development education to a network of more than 120 high schools around the state.....
