President's Update

Build on the Momentum

By Bo Beaulieu

It was a genuine pleasure to witness the energy and enthusiasm of those taking part in the CDS annual meeting in Charleston, SC just a few weeks ago. The number of registrants was exceptional and the large array of quality presentations was nothing short of impressive. Everything seemed to work so well during the course of the week - thanks to the hard work of so many people....

New Dawn for The Vanguard

As our regular communications become increasingly digital, a time for renewal has come for The Vanguard. This issue has a new, sleek, and computer-friendly design. Full articles can be found on the CDS blog, making it easier to skim and access the information most relevant to you. I hope you enjoy the new design and I encourage your feedback as further tweaks are made. I'm here and I'm listening.

Society Recognizes 2013 Award Recipients

By Katie Ellis

Each year the Society has the privilege of recognizing the achievements of outstanding leaders, organizations, and champions in the field of community development. We pause collectively for an evening during the Annual Meeting of the Community Development Society to reflect, celebrate success, and express gratitude for the contributions being made in the field. In 2013, eight awards were presented...

With Much Gratitude

By Craig Talmage

It is with pleasure I write this note of thanks to CDS. As a second year CDS member, I had the privilege of attending this year's annual conference in Charleston, South Carolina. At this year's conference, I had the honor of receiving a student scholarship for my work as a third year Ph.D. candidate in Community Resources and Development at Arizona State University. I hope in this short note to communicate my deepest gratitude for CDS as an organization and as a community of amazing members....
