President's Update

Hopes for Congressional Lemonade

By Bo Beaulieu

I write this note at a time when our country is facing some serious challenges. As a result of ideological differences in Congress most federal agencies are closed and the debate about the raising of our national debt continues strong. While I do not intend to enter into the political fray over the 2014 federal budget or the debt ceiling, I do believe what we represent in CDS is the antithesis of what we see happening in Washington, DC. Certainly, many of us have worked in communities where deep-seeded differences among local factions have paralyzed the capacity of communities to act on key priorities....

sometimes am unsure how to create an effective relationship with the people I find myself working with. My academic training tells me to keep some distance but the work itself may require more intimacy and commitment that the academy would support...
